Subject: Travellers incursion - Rainham Area - Lamson Road / Consul Avenue
Importance: High

Hello Onkar

You may already be aware that travellers are again at the above location arriving in force at approximately 8.30 pm last night. (see photographs below). Can you confirm that the paperwork is still in place to proceed with eviction?

For information purposes, for all these are the travellers movements last night

BID security on patrol approximately 7.30 pm arrived at the Southern roundabout Marsh Way to see travellers entering Marsh Way towards Fairview Industrial Park /Shanks. The travellers entered the approach road to Shanks (Creek Way). They proceeded to break in to land on the left hand side of Creek Way. One vehicle attempted to enter the site but was thwarted by the very wet ground. The Travellers then left the area in groups of about 4, security were where possible attempting to follow.

Some travellers moved to Consul Avenue where they are already in situ, others moved to Lamson Road again!!!

At the moment the situation is as follows

Lamson Road – 11 caravans

Consul Avenue – 11 caravans

Easter Park / Ferry Lane South – 4 caravans

Kind regards

Debbie

Thanks Debbie,

I have just heard that they are threatening this morning to come back onto our land as well.

I note the point about the concrete blocks but we will not be able to get more of these in place in time in any case so we have our security keeping the gates closed and opening then as required at present. Hopefully we will have the bollards operational again soon.

Thanks for keeping us in the loop.

Kind regards,

Kevin

Hello Kevin

Good to speak to you on Friday.

As discussed, security have observed out that you currently have a concrete bollard across the access where the travellers recently gained entry to. As discussed security have reported that travellers easily pull/push bollards out of the way with their vehicles. We understand that you are endeavouring to repair the retractable bollards in an effort to thwart any further 'invasions'?

We detail below communication sent on Friday, another email will be sent later today regarding circulation.

Kind regards

Debbie

Subject: Grass area off Coldharbour Lane, Alongside Easter Industrial Park - remains of fly tipping/calor/butane gas bottle from recent traveller incursion

Hi Malcolm,

As you will see from the email detailed below, businesses located on the Easter Industrial Park have concerns regarding the remaining fly tipping calor/butane gas bottle left by the travellers after they recently vacated the above location .

We would appreciate it if you can deal with this asap please.

Kind regards,

Maggie

Dear Debbie,

Thank you for sorting the travellers out recently.

I checked the rubbish still present on the land occupied by them. Apart from the need to clear the remainder before other people copy the dumping, it is worth noting that there is a gas bottle, propane butane or calor, present in the bushes just waiting for a miscreant to ignite it! As a matter of urgency, I advise that the site should be cleared fully. If there is any way you can push the responsible person concerned, it would be a good idea to prevent more trouble.

Best regards,

Michael Pearson

Debbie

You may have already seen that Travellers have broken into our site and assaulted the guard. This is the second time this has happened here and it is causing us to seriously reconsider our approach to investment in the local area.

I would like to write today to the MP, the Leader of the Council and the relevant Chief of Police. Please could you help me with contact details for each of them? Are there any other parties at the Council who can help us address this issue both in the immediate short term and then in the medium-long term?

I look forward to hearing from you as soon as you are able to consider this.

Regards
Jeff

Dear All,

Please see information enclosed, fresh information as of 13:46 Tues 26/07/2016

"For intel, we are currently dealing with an incident just off River Road in Barking where travellers have broken through a barrier and are occupying a warehouse. My colleague has just left for site and he will keep me up to date of their movements. At this stage they are still on site, and are unlikely to move anytime soon. If they do move off, I will let you know as it is not far from the site."

Dear All,

Please see information enclosed, fresh information as of 13:46 Tues 26/07/2016

“For intel, we are currently dealing with an incident just off River Road in Barking where travellers have broken through a barrier and are occupying a warehouse. My colleague has just left for site and he will keep me up to date of their movements. At this stage they are still on site, and are unlikely to move anytime soon. If they do move off, I will let you know as it is not far from the site.”

Subject: Travellers

Hello all,

As you can see from the security report detailed below, it was a very busy night for all parties!!

We confirm that the BID has formally advised the LB Havering enforcement team and all other relevant parties.

All of the caravans have now left Lamson Road, it appears this location is used as a "holding area", whilst looking for other sites. We understand the travellers have now moved to a site in Dagenham.

Regards,

Maggie

London Riverside Bid Report Friday 22nd July 2016 – Travellers Consul Avenue/Coldharbour Lane/Lamson Road

19.38 Seven trucks and five trucks and trailers parked in road at consul Avenue. Drivers just sitting in cab.

19.42 Nine caravans came past me and drove towards consul Avenue. I turned my patrol vehicle around and followed them towards the old Newsfax premises.

19.44 All of the vehicles/caravans parked up on the road. They are looking for a new site to break into.

19.59 I called the police CAD 944122072016

21.01 I was then contacted by PC LISTER (146) on the bid radio. We had a discussion over what steps we could take in preventing the travellers from breaking into any other sites. I also gave the PC a couple of sites that could be prime targets for the travellers.

21.12 I followed two vehicles down towards Ferry Lane South. The two vehicles then drove towards the RSPB site in Coldhabrour lane.

21.27 Travellers broke into the RSPB site in Coldhabrour lane.

21.28 I called the police CAD 1035922062016 (15 minutes emergency call)

21.29 Informed "jack the farmer" who's live stock is on the RSPB field

21.30 More caravans are arriving on site at Coldharbour lane.

21.45 Police riot van arrived on site

21.54 I drive round caravans and then drove straight to Consul Avenue and blocked both gates with two patrol vehicles and also shut the main gates into site.

22.00 All caravans drove to Lamson Road and there now attempting to fit 15 caravans/vehicles into a very small area, using the footpaths, as well as the road.

22.02 I informed CCTV monitoring station LB Havering who are now monitoring this site by CCTV

22.20 Jack from the farmers field in Coldhabrour lane has now re secured his site, with a new padlock. He has pulled concrete blocks back in front of the entrance to the field, as best he can, He is more than thank full for the job that security carried out.

22.29 Police arrived on site at Lamson Road and spoke to travellers.

22.30 Police helicopter is also hovering around the area.

22.46 All police vehicles have now left site.

23.36 Still a great deal of movement from the travellers in Lamson Road. I have two patrol vehicles following vans and trucks as they leave site to make sure they don't gain entry to any other sites on the BID area.

00.37 I Was approached by a Black Vauxhall vectra. (FN06 LXW) when I was parked at the entrance to RMD Quick Form. (A vacant site) A Irish traveller, male then got out of vehicle and asked me how long the other group of travellers had been at Lamson Road.

01.16 About 10 cars parked up near Keebels roundabout. None of the vehicles are drifting.

01.30 I did not carry out a great deal of patrols of the BID as me and mark the other patrol driver were monitoring the movements of the travellers. There is still a great deal of movement in Lamson Road. I think travellers have spotted the yard at RMD Quick forms (A vacant site)

01.33 Travellers are pulling into Albright Industrial Estate and driving along the side of RMD Quick form (A vacant site)

01.57 Three trucks and trailers parked in Easter Industrial Park lay by. Driver asleep in cabs.

02.46 It seems to have quietened down a little bit in Lamson Road. Still a number of vehicles going in and out of site though.

04.00 Black bags full of Rubbish have not yet been removed from footpath in Salamons Way. Rubbish all over roads.

04.58 Yard gates to Fresh Linen Denver Industrial Estate are still stuck open. Gates will not close.

06.11 All travellers are still parked on footpaths and in road at Lasmon Road.

Debbie,

As you are aware travellers have now left Courier Road.

Scott is out of office today and has asked me to contact you with a view to secure this location once travellers have been evicted.

There is also a small amount of rubbish which they have left behind. Please can you confirm back to me what your plans are to secure this area to prevent any future travellers gaining access?

Thanks for your help and support. Please contact me and I will assist where I can.

Tony

Travellers are still in Romford Town Centre on the old "decathlon" site in Angel Way.

Estimates of refuse there (viewed from top of the angel way car park) are £60-80k.

Four caravans have moved on to the "Como Street" car park which is directly opposite and we suspect this might be the advance guard for the rest of the Angel Way Travellers.

This Car Park is Council owned.

Travellers are still in Romford Town Centre on the old "decathlon" site in Angel Way.

Estimates of refuse there (viewed from top of the Angel Way car park) are £60-80k.

Four caravans have moved on to the "Como Street" car park which is directly opposite and we suspect this might be the advance guard for the rest of the Angel Way Travellers.

This Car Park is Council owned.

Hello all

We have received an update regarding the above travellers at Ford. Notice will be served notice today, Court is set for Monday 18th July 2016 with eviction planned for Wednesday 20th July 2016.

If there is any update on the travellers at Angel Way Romford would you please advise accordingly??

On another note, we have received intelligence from a reliable source, there is a Traveller wedding planned in the very near future in this area, so please be on high alert as an influx of travellers could be descended on the Havering / Barking and Dagenham area. Should we receive a firm date we will let you know accordingly.

Please make all relevant parties aware.

Kind regards

The solicitor has had another look at the plans and it appears that it is GLA land and not TfL. We will start the eviction process.

They have moved onto land owned by TfL who are aware. It's the same process (GLA or TfL) and action is being taken.

Dear All,

I have this morning liaised with the head Mistress of Beam School. In my view this is an entirely proportionate use of Police S 61 powers and we are acting swiftly today to remove the travellers with the Head's blessing. Although the group are not on school land, the proximity and their actions to date justify S61 use. Police are currently on site, but the formal removal will likely be co-ordinated after lunch today.

As always, the LBBd enforcement team led by Rob Curtis have offered their assistance; thank you for that.

Regards,

Rob.

They have moved onto land owned by TfL who are aware. It's the same process (GLA or TfL) and action is being taken.

Subject: GLA Land - Fords exit/entrance - Marsh Way roundabout South - 4 caravans

Hello all

To confirm the travellers in Consul Avenue have moved to the above location, Fords security are on site, blocking entrance/exit, to ensure more travellers do not gain access.

Approximately 6 travellers caravans from the Premier Inn were seen yesterday (Sunday) by myself travelling down the Heathway then onto Whalebone Lane South, towards Chadwell Heath at approximately 12 midday. We are unsure where they ended up!!!!

Kind regards

Debbie

Dear All,

I have this morning liaised with the head Mistress of Beam School. In my view this is an entirely proportionate use of Police S 61 powers and we are acting swiftly today to remove the travellers with the Head's blessing. Although the group are not on school land, the proximity and their actions to date justify S61 use. Police are currently on site, but the formal removal will likely be co-ordinated after lunch today.

As always, the LBBB enforcement team led by Rob Curtis have offered their assistance; thank you for that.

Regards,

Rob.

Subject: GLA Land - Fords exit/entrance - Marsh Way roundabout South - 4 caravans

Hello all

To confirm the travellers in Consul Avenue have moved to the above location, Fords security are on site, blocking entrance/exit, to ensure more travellers do not gain access.

Approximately 6 travellers caravans from the Premier Inn were seen yesterday (Sunday) by myself travelling down the Heathway then onto Whalebone Lane South, towards Chadwell Heath at approximately 12 midday. We are unsure where they ended up!!!!

Kind regards

Debbie

Dear All,

I have this morning liaised with the head Mistress of Beam School. In my view this is an entirely proportionate use of Police S 61 powers and we are acting swiftly today to remove the travellers with the Head's blessing. Although the group are not on school land, the proximity and their actions to date justify S61 use. Police are currently on site, but the formal removal will likely be co-ordinated after lunch today.

As always, the LBBB enforcement team led by Rob Curtis have offered their assistance; thank you for that.

Regards,

Rob.

Hello all

We detail security report from the BID's mobile patrol regarding traveller movements over the weekend. As you will see, apart from 4 caravans the remainder appear to have left the BID area??? As there are no reports via the email system, we suspect they are not currently in LB Havering or Barking and Dagenham??

Kind regards

Hello all

Allegedly, the Met Police have given the travellers permission to park up overnight !!!! These travellers have explained they have just arrived from Birmingham and are only staying one night.

This area we understand is public highway, and the caravans are obstructing/parked on pavement areas. Surely this should not be allowed to happen!!! Would a representative from the Council highways please confirm that the responsibility for this area lies with the Council, if not please confirm who's responsibility the area in question is please ???

The BID have requested that Homes and Housing train the CCTV cameras on this location/ gate to the Marshes and have arranged for an extra security guard to be in situ at this location overnight, in an attempt to thwart any illegal activities.

Kind regards

Debbie

Hello all

Please be aware travellers are sited at the above location

Allegedly, the Met Police have given the travellers permission to park up overnight !!!!
These travellers have explained they have just arrived from Birmingham and are only staying one night.

The BID have requested that Homes and Housing train the CCTV cameras on this location/ gate to the Marshes and have arranged for an extra security guard to be in situ at this location overnight, in an attempt to thwart any illegal activities

Please make sure your premises are locked and no equipment is left outside

Double check / Lock securely - any of your sites that has the potential for Travellers to park.

Kind regards

Debbie

Hello all

We have visited the above area this morning, and Parks police were present. We understand that Parks Police have spoken to the travellers , who confirmed them they would be hooking up around 12.30pm today and vacating the area.

We confirm the BID provided a static guard last night to 'oversee the travellers'. This morning we have received several verbal complaints regarding access to Rainham Station along the lines of the email earlier today detailed below.

We also detail below email from the Council confirming that the area in question is Public Highway and that the Travellers should not be encourage to stay and the Police should move them one.

The BIDs security have just visited the site and there is some movement

We will keep you updated as the day goes on

Kind regards

Hi Debbie.

Having checked the Highways register it does appear to be public highway.

Both the council and the Police have powers to remove vehicles obstructing the public highway under the Highways Act 1980. There is also other legislation

I do not know where the allegation that the Police gave them authority to park here originates from.?

I cannot see the a Police Officer condoning or agreeing to what is in effect an offence?

The Police therefore have the necessary powers to move these travellers on and this would be the best solution. I suspect they are already looking for somewhere nearby.

There is a "cross-border" meeting tomorrow between the various local authorities, EA and the Police and I think everybody is waking up to the fact that this is an issue that can only be solved by taking a co-ordinated approach across all the Boroughs and involving other partners.

Apparently the problem is more widespread than just the Eastern London Boroughs.

Will keep you updated.

It is with some disappointment now that the 24 hours grace given to the Travellers by the Police has now expired (we understand Essex Police!) and despite several complaints to 101, the Police have not arrived at the above location to move the Travellers on.

So it looks like they will be insitu for at least another night!

At least their getting their washing dry!!!!

Hello all,

We confirm the travellers have not yet moved from the above location.
We have just spoken to Rainham & Wennington SNT Police, who advised us that the travellers are being monitored three times in every 24 hour shift by police, to obtain regular updates from the travellers regarding their intentions to "move on". The Rainham & Wennington SNT police are also providing monitoring visits, reporting to an Inspector.
We understand that British Transport Police have cleared a route to the station.

The BID have no choice but to provide additional security whilst the travellers remain, bearing in mind that this is a Bank holiday weekend.

Kind regards

Subject: RE: RE Update - : TRAVELLERS - under Trackway Lamson Road Rainham RM13 9YY

Dear Debbie

They are on the highway and so it would be up to the police to deal with for quick moving on. We can serve notices on unattached caravans but requirement would be to remove in 28 days!

When on our land we have employed bailiffs to remove, but they would just move them onto the highway, otherwise we have to obtain court orders which takes 7-10 days.

I think we will have to see if they move tomorrow as promised and if not try and put pressure on the police to act.

Thanks

Simon

Hello Brian

As per our telephone conversation earlier today and our email yesterday detailed below , we also detail below an emailed complaint from a neighbouring business regarding the travellers above.

We confirm that the BID have instructed the BID security to site a guard at the entrance 24/7 over the bank holiday weekend, to observe movements, and that the police are making adhoc visits every day, the British Rail police are also visiting along with Parks Police. You confirmed that the local SNT are on shift this weekend and will also be making visits. You also confirmed that you have visited businesses in the immediate vicinity, in an attempt to reassure them that all is being done. We understand that one businesses is sleeping in their unit each night to protect their business.

It is disappointing that notices have not been served, as we understand that the Council and the Police are both able to do this (see email below) and we suggest a decision should be made in this respect as soon as possible!!!

There is now a build-up of rubbish from the travellers, who will be responsible to clear when they leave, we presume the Council ???

Kind regards

Debbie

Hi Debbie,

Yesterday we had some of the Travellers walking around the yard basically looking at what we had scrap and batteries etc.

I did challenge them and they just walked off site.

Is there any news about them being moved on?

thanks

Hello all,

We confirm the travellers have not yet moved from the above location.

We have just spoken to Rainham & Wennington SNT Police, who advised us that the travellers are being monitored three times in every 24 hour shift by police, to obtain regular updates from the travellers regarding their intentions to "move on". The Rainham & Wennington SNT police are also providing monitoring visits, reporting to an Inspector.

We understand that British Transport Police have cleared a route to the station.

The BID have no choice but to provide additional security whilst the travellers remain, bearing in mind that this is a Bank holiday weekend.

Kind regards

Hi Debbie.

Having checked the Highways register it does appear to be public highway.

Both the council and the Police have powers to remove vehicles obstructing the public highway under the Highways Act 1980. There is also other legislation

I do not know where the allegation that the Police gave them authority to park here originates from.?

I cannot see the a Police Officer condoning or agreeing to what is in effect an offence?

The Police therefore have the necessary powers to move these travellers on and this would be the best solution. I suspect they are already looking for somewhere nearby.

There is a "cross-border" meeting tomorrow between the various local authorities, EA and the Police and I think everybody is waking up to the fact that this is an issue that can only be solved by taking a co-ordinated approach across all the Boroughs and involving other partners.

Apparently the problem is more widespread than just the Eastern London Boroughs.

Will keep you updated.

Hello all

We confirm 2 caravans/travellers have parked up at the above location, and as you will see from the emails below, businesses are concerned that Lamson Road will be known as a 'soft touch'. We note that threat of more travellers arriving at the weekend, has been mentioned (see emails below).

The travellers are today being evicted from the old Rainham Library site, and the possibility of these ending up in Lamson Road is worrying

Unfortunately, the BID do not own the area in question and can only assist by citing a guard at the location giving a presence to let the travellers know that they are being watched!!!

The BID attempts to keep all informed, of the situation, but does not have any powers to evict.

It would be handy to know if the Council intend to serve notice today as per 27th May 2016, as local businesses are becoming very concerned???

Kind regards

Debbie

I for one have not been given any updates on the travellers this time round, it seems as though Havering Council and the MET have simply washed their hands of this problem, what are the London Bid able to do? Nothing it would seem.

If there is not a stance taken this will just continue and get worse as the message gets round the traveller community that you get a hassle free 7 day stay in Lamson Rd !!!

What are local business paying rates and the London bid for I

I agree. There seems to be a different sets of laws for travellers. How much does it cost tax payers to be continually moving them off land and tidying up after them when they have left?

My warehouse manager sent me the following email yesterday...

"Might be idea to let everyone else to know that one of the station guards spoke with them and they told him don't worry about us as loads are coming at the weekend."

Not good news.

Kind regards

Dear All

After my discussions with the police, British transport police and network rail this afternoon, the Council have decided, that in order to expedite matters, to serve notice on the travellers under Section 77 of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994. The notice was served just after 5pm today.

The notice requires the travellers to leave the site. If the travellers do not leave, the Council will have to apply to the courts to obtain an order. If the travellers are still in place after the weekend, we will seek to get a court hearing as soon as possible. We will then have to serve summons on the travellers notifying them of the court hearing. Any order that we obtain from the court would usually give the travellers 24 hours to leave the site. If the travellers do not move off, then we could be looking at having a court order requiring them to leave some time next week.

Given the circumstances in this case that the travellers are not blocking any particular vehicular route and btp/network rail are satisfied that they can access their land, this is considered to be a proportional response at this time.

Subject: FW: TRAVELLERS _ LAMSON ROAD under TRACKWAY - 6 pm Wednesday 1st June 2016
Importance: High

Morning Simon

We confirm that 3 caravans/travellers parked up at the above location (now reduced to 2), and as you will see from the emails below, businesses are concerned that Lamson Road will be known as a 'soft touch'. We note that the threat of more travellers arriving at the weekend, has been mentioned (see emails below).

We understand that travellers are being evicted today from the old Rainham Library site, and the possibility of these moving to Lamson Road is a huge concern!

The BID have been ensuring that mobile security are stationed in Lamson Road and are monitoring the travellers movements, restricting their activities, which discourages them to stay!

The BID continues to keep all parties informed, in particular the police and the Council.

Does the Council intend to serve notice today, in line with your email dated 27th May 2016, also detailed below, as we are facing the prospect of another weekend, with the very real possibility of the numbers of caravans increasing?

Kind regards

Debbie

I for one have not been given any updates on the travellers this time round, it seems as though Havering Council and the MET have simply washed their hands of this problem, what are the London Bid able to do? Nothing it would seem.

If there is not a stance taken this will just continue and get worse as the message gets round the traveller community that you get a hassle free 7 day stay in Lamson Rd !!!

What are local business paying rates and the London bid for !

Kind regards and thanks

I agree. There seems to be a different sets of laws for travellers. How much does it cost tax payers to be continually moving them off land and tidying up after them when they have left?

My warehouse manager sent me the following email yesterday....

"Might be idea to let everyone else to know that one of the station guards spoke with them and they told him don't worry about us as loads are coming at the weekend."

Not good news.

Kind regards

Mike

Subject: Re: Travellers - Lamson Road - under Trackway RM13 9YY

Dear All

After my discussions with the police, British transport police and network rail this afternoon, the Council have decided, that in order to expedite matters, to serve notice on the travellers under Section 77 of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994. The notice was served just after 5pm today.

The notice requires the travellers to leave the site. If the travellers do not leave, the Council will have to apply to the courts to obtain an order. If the travellers are still in place after the weekend, we will seek to get a court hearing as soon as possible. We will then have to serve summons on the travellers notifying them of the court hearing. Any order that we obtain from the court would usually give the travellers 24 hours to leave the site. If the travellers do not move off, then we could be looking at having a court order requiring them to leave some time next week.

Given the circumstances in this case that the travellers are not blocking any particular vehicular route and btp/network rail are satisfied that they can access their land, this is considered to be a proportional response at this time.

Thanks

Dear Maggie

We served a notice under Section 77 of the of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 last Friday and the travellers moved away shortly afterwards that evening.

The S77 notice remains in place and as there are now travellers caravans back, we need to obtain an order from the magistrates court to remove the travellers. We are trying to fix a court hearing as quickly as possible and will need to serve Summons on the travellers 1 working day in advance of the hearing. We are at the mercy of the courts in setting a date for the hearing, but we are stressing the importance of the matter.

Thanks

Simon

Dear All

After my discussions with the police, British transport police and network rail this afternoon, the Council have decided, that in order to expedite matters, to serve notice on the travellers under Section 77 of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994. The notice was served just after 5pm today.

The notice requires the travellers to leave the site. If the travellers do not leave, the Council will have to apply to the courts to obtain an order. If the travellers are still in place after the weekend, we will seek to get a court hearing as soon as possible. We will then have to serve summons on the travellers notifying them of the court hearing. Any order that we obtain from the court would usually give the travellers 24 hours to leave the site. If the travellers do not move off, then we could be looking at having a court order requiring them to leave some time next week.

Given the circumstances in this case that the travellers are not blocking any particular vehicular route and btp/network rail are satisfied that they can access their land, this is considered to be a proportional response at this time.

Hello Simon

As you may already be aware, travellers have returned to the above location. (see photograph below)

We understand that preparations are in hand to remove the travellers from Beam Reach and Choats Road.

Are you able to confirm that the Section 77 of the of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 notice mentioned in your email dated 3rd June 2016 remains in place and the Council are obtaining an order from the magistrates Court to remove the travellers

We look forward to hearing from you

Kind regards

Subject: RE: TRAVELLERS _ LAMSON ROAD under TRACKWAY - 6 pm Wednesday 1st June 2016

Dear Maggie

We served a notice under Section 77 of the of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 last Friday and the travellers moved away shortly afterwards that evening.

The S77 notice remains in place and as there are now travellers caravans back, we need to obtain an order from the magistrates court to remove the travellers. We are trying to fix a court hearing as quickly as possible and will need to serve Summons on the travellers 1 working day in advance of the hearing. We are at the mercy of the courts in setting a date for the hearing, but we are stressing the importance of the matter.

Thanks

Simon

Hi Debbie

We have restarted the legal process and are waiting for a court date.

Please note that my colleagues in Planning Enforcement are taking this on now as I am on leave from today to 27th June – I have cc'd them in if you need any update.

Thanks

Simon

Subject: Travellers - Lamson Road - approximately 6 with vehicles

Hello Simon

As you may already be aware, travellers have returned to the above location. (see photograph below)

We understand that preparations are in hand to remove the travellers from Beam Reach and Choats Road.

Are you able to confirm that the Section 77 of the of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 notice mentioned in your email dated 3rd June 2016 remains in place and the Council are obtaining an order from the magistrates Court to remove the travellers

We look forward to hearing from you

Kind regards

Debbie

Subject: RE: TRAVELLERS _ LAMSON ROAD under TRACKWAY - 6 pm Wednesday 1st June 2016

Dear Maggie

We served a notice under Section 77 of the of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 last Friday and the travellers moved away shortly afterwards that evening.

The S77 notice remains in place and as there are now travellers caravans back, we need to obtain an order from the magistrates court to remove the travellers. We are trying to fix a court hearing as quickly as possible and will need to serve Summons on the travellers 1 working day in advance of the hearing. We are at the mercy of the courts in setting a date for the hearing, but we are stressing the importance of the matter.

Thanks

Simon

Subject: Update - Travellers - Lamson Road - Simply loos site - A1306 - Notice to Evict - Consul Avenue

Hello Simon

We confirm that the travellers moved from Lamson Road on Saturday 11th June 2016 to an vacant site – Simply Loos on the A1306, (same location the Travellers entered at the end of April 2016). The BID have informed estate agent Kemsleys of the incursion, who in turn will advise the owner of the site. (see photograph / report below)

We confirm the Travellers to the rear of Consul Avenue have been served Notice of a Court Hearing on 15th June 2016). Should the BID be informed of any further updates, we will let all know. (see notice below)

Kind regards

Debbie

Hello Colin

We have left a message with your receptionist/secretary regarding the above.

Travellers have gained entry to the above location again.

We understand that another travellers site at Consul Avenue Dagenham have been served Notice of Court action on 15th June 2016. Concerns should be raised that these travellers may move to the above site as well??

Kind regards

Thanks Debbie

I've contacted the owner who, of course, was already aware as he is on site.

He has had to pay them to move on and I believe they are about to do so now. He will fence the site thereafter to stop it happening again.

Hello Vicky

Further to our telephone conversation earlier, we detail below photograph of the area in question. These travellers moved from Havering Campus over the weekend. We understand some of the travellers have moved on to Dagenham, but as you can see approximately 10-12 are at the above location.

As discussed, we have contacted you as we are unaware of the owner of the Land in question to contact them direct

Many thanks for this up date

So the threat remains high for all in Barking and Dagenham which is concerning

However I am full of praise for this early warning process it at least allows us to take measures to protect ourselves

Subject: Update - Travellers - Lamson Road - Simply loos site - A1306 - Notice to Evict - Consul Avenue

Hello Simon

We confirm that the travellers moved from Lamson Road on Saturday 11th June 2016 to an vacant site – Simply Loos on the A1306 , (same location the Travellers entered at the end of April 2016). The BID have informed estate agent Kemsleys of the incursion, who in turn will advise the owner of the site. (see photograph / report below)

We confirm the Travellers to the rear of Consul Avenue have been served Notice of a Court Hearing on 15th June 2016). Should the BID be informed of any further updates, we will let all know. (see notice below)

Kind regards

Debbie

Saturday 11th June 2016

Colleagues,

As of 17.00hrs the caravans are still on site with associated vehicles. They are still hooked up so the indication is that they have not settled and are proposing to move. All stakeholders have been alerted and where possible vulnerable public spaces have been locked. However, I feel if they move it will either be out of the borough or onto private land within the borough.

Street Enforcement officers will continue to monitor the site and will revisit early am to establish if there is any change in the position

Hello

The BID's security have already requested that Homes and Housing (who monitor the CCTV on behalf of the BID) direct the cameras towards the travellers/gate.

Are you able to move the travellers on, as the area in question is public highway??

Kind regards

Dear John,

Thank you for your email.

I have already raised this with the Borough Commander and will update you on any feedback.

As I said at the very useful meeting that we had in April, we need a co-ordinated regional approach here. The challenge is that the groups are currently moving between sites across three boroughs. The current location is not in Barking and Dagenham, but my view is that we should move away from a single borough intervention and agree a joint enforcement response. Whilst this will take longer to establish, it will result in a greater intervention. There is a meeting of the Riverside Environmental Crime Group this Wednesday, which includes Haverling, Newham and Redbridge. I am going to raise this issue with them to see if we can agree a joint response.

I will update you after the meeting.

Good Morning Debbie,

I received a call from the below this morning, he is bailiff and involved in the eviction of travellers from the mentioned site presently. He has also had dealings in other sites of interest to the group that has been set up. If possible can he be added to the group email as I think he'll be beneficial with trying to find a solution to this problem

Subject: Travellers at Ponders End

Hi Amy and Emma

Thanks for speaking to me this morning Amy

This is to confirm that we are instructed by the landowners to deal with the eviction of a group of travellers in 14 caravans who are occupying an large enclosed development site which was formally industrial at East Duck Lees Lane, Ponders End, EN3 7SR. They arrived last Thursday and have been fly-tipping commercial quantities of waste there ever since, apart from yesterday afternoon when our presence interrupted things for a few hours.

The travellers have placed their own padlocks on the gates and yesterday successfully thwarted our attempts at entering by backing a lorry up to the gates on the inside of the compound and then chaining the gates to it. As the site is surrounded by high fencing erected by the contractors our only way in, if we cannot get through the gates will be to remove a section of the fencing.

We were unable to obtain a police presence to support a forced eviction although the travellers said they would leave overnight but that has not happened and the fly-tipping continues. We are continuing in our attempts to obtain a police involvement but may have to wait for their divisional 'events' team to get back to us on that. If I hear back from them and they are in a position to assist I will let you know in case you want an involvement

The EA Hotline have informed me that the report I made to them on Saturday has been allocated to Emma which is the reason I called you this morning. I am wondering if it would be possible to achieve a co-ordinated approach including yourselves and the police with a view to bringing this specific issue to an end although, as discussed we will only be moving it elsewhere. We have various registration numbers of vehicles involved in the fly-tipping and I will ensure the on-site security man is properly briefed in this respect

On a broader note I will be happy to be included in and contribute in anyway possible to your joint agency group who are attempting to deal with the issues over a wider area.

Can you please confirm receipt.

Regards

Bryan Lecoche

Subject: Re: Travellers - Lamson Road - under Trackway RM13 9YY

Dear All

After my discussions with the police, British transport police and network rail this afternoon, the Council have decided, that in order to expedite matters, to serve notice on the travellers under Section 77 of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994. The notice was served just after 5pm today.

The notice requires the travellers to leave the site. If the travellers do not leave, the Council will have to apply to the courts to obtain an order. If the travellers are still in place after the weekend, we will seek to get a court hearing as soon as possible. We will then have to serve summons on the travellers notifying them of the court hearing. Any order that we obtain from the court would usually give the travellers 24 hours to leave the site. If the travellers do not move off, then we could be looking at having a court order requiring them to leave some time next week.

Given the circumstances in this case that the travellers are not blocking any particular vehicular route and btp/network rail are satisfied that they can access their land, this is considered to be a proportional response at this time.

We confirm the travellers have not yet moved from the above location.
We have just spoken to Rainham & Wennington SNT Police, who advised us that the travellers are being monitored three times in every 24 hour shift by police, to obtain regular updates from the travellers regarding their intentions to "move on". The Rainham & Wennington SNT police are also providing monitoring visits, reporting to an Inspector.
We understand that British Transport Police have cleared a route to the station.

The BID have no choice but to provide additional security whilst the travellers remain, bearing in mind that this is a Bank holiday weekend.

Kind regards

Hi Debbie.

Having checked the Highways register it does appear to be public highway.

Both the council and the Police have powers to remove vehicles obstructing the public highway under the Highways Act 1980. There is also other legislation

I do not know where the allegation that the Police gave them authority to park here originates from.?

I cannot see the a Police Officer condoning or agreeing to what is in effect an offence?

The Police therefore have the necessary powers to move these travellers on and this would be the best solution. I suspect they are already looking for somewhere nearby.

There is a "cross-border" meeting tomorrow between the various local authorities, EA and the Police and I think everybody is waking up to the fact that this is an issue that can only be solved by taking a co-ordinated approach across all the Boroughs and involving other partners.

Apparently the problem is more widespread than just the Eastern London Boroughs.

Will keep you updated.

Dear Debbie

They are on the highway and so it would be up to the police to deal with for quick moving on. We can serve notices on unattached caravans but requirement would be to remove in 28 days!

When on our land we have employed bailiffs to remove, but they would just move them onto the highway, otherwise we have to obtain court orders which takes 7-10 days.

I think we will have to see if they move tomorrow as promised and if not try and put pressure on the police to act.

Thanks

Simon

Steve

I agree. There seems to be a different sets of laws for travellers. How much does it cost tax payers to be continually moving them off land and tidying up after them when they have left?

My warehouse manager sent me the following email yesterday....

"Might be idea to let everyone else to know that one of the station guards spoke with them and they told him don't worry about us as loads are coming at the weekend."

Not good news.

Kind regards

Mike

I for one have not been given any updates on the travellers this time round, it seems as though Havering Council and the MET have simply washed their hands of this problem, what are the London Bid able to do? Nothing it would seem.

If there is not a stance taken this will just continue and get worse as the message gets round the traveller community that you get a hassle free 7 day stay in Lamson Rd !!!

What are local business paying rates and the London bid for

Please be aware travellers are sited at the above location

Allegedly, the Met Police have given the travellers permission to park up overnight !!!! These travellers have explained they have just arrived from Birmingham and are only staying one night.

The BID have requested that Homes and Housing train the CCTV cameras on this location/ gate to the Marshes and have arranged for an extra security guard to be in situ at this location overnight, in an attempt to thwart any illegal activities

Please make sure your premises are locked and no equipment is left outside

Double check / Lock securely - any of your sites that has the potential for Travellers to park.

Hi All

A note I received from Malcolm Beadle GLA not sure if all got it.

It appears the same travellers are site hopping and we seem powerless to move them to a more suitable short stay site i.e. a legal transit site, probably as there aren't any and this is the problem that needs to be addressed.

If every Borough had a transit site then the laws to protect the public and private land owner could be applied without conflict. It appears the approach the police adopt is one of containment rather eviction as they cannot immediately apply laws based on an infrastructure that doesn't exist. So they don't!!!

A very simple solution available but all seem reluctant to implement.

If it is cost then maybe then this should become a public/private programme with insurance companies playing a major part/role.

We have transit sites in the Borough of Halton (Widnes Town/Runcorn Town) were I own another ex corporate site and we had a major travellers issue last Friday which was sorted within a matter of hours

This is something I have written to the London Mayor about, there is a swift solution here based on models which are tried and tested over a number of years and work and are already in place. We don't have to re-invent the wheel here just replicate the model in place that works.

Transit sites are right for the travellers (it gives them short term accommodation options), they are right for the police to help implement law where and when needed and the business and public communities.
The solution!

Just a point of view for all to consider

John

They're apparently on our land but it's mainly used by Network Rail to service the HS1 route. They are a group we were due to evict today from another one of our sites in the area.

Subject: RE: Travellers - Land Adjacent to Unit 7, Consol Ave, Rainham

Dear All

We understand that the land to the east of Unit 7 is owned by the GLA.

Philippa et al at GLA – could you confirm that matters are in hand in relation to removal of travellers from land and keep us updated on any actions you are taking.

Thanks

Simon

All,

We have just had an update from Mark White and his team; traveller tried to break into our site and have now occupied the land adjacent to our site (directly to the east).

Martin

They are causing a real problem. Only on Friday one of our 40 foot lorries nearly run over one of their toddlers, it was real close, imagine the hassle that would have caused.

They leave rubbish every time they are hear, which I assume we pay to clear through the London bid!

They are intimidating to our female staff members who walk from the station

Why should we put up with them regardless of whether they have committed a crime, if you are a law abiding, tax paying citizen you can be afforded the luxury of ono persecution

Kind regards

Steve

Indeed

These communications are very good and needed. They are an excellent record of what is happening and simply cannot be ignored.

Hello Simon

Thank you for the update, in the interim time the BID will continue with extra security to 'oversee' the travellers and keep an eye on their movements

Kind regards

Debbie

Hi Debbie

We have restarted the legal process and are waiting for a court date.

Please note that my colleagues in Planning Enforcement are taking this on now as I am on leave from today to 27th June – I have cc'd them in if you need any update.

Thanks

Simon

Subject: Travellers - Lamson Road - approximately 6 with vehicles

Hello Simon

As you may already be aware, travellers have returned to the above location. (see photograph below)

We understand that preparations are in hand to remove the travellers from Beam Reach and Choats Road.

Are you able to confirm that the Section 77 of the of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 notice mentioned in your email dated 3rd June 2016 remains in place and the Council are obtaining an order from the magistrates Court to remove the travellers

We look forward to hearing from you

Kind regards

Debbie

Subject: RE: TRAVELLERS _ LAMSON ROAD under TRACKWAY - 6 pm Wednesday 1st June 2016

Dear Maggie

We served a notice under Section 77 of the of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 last Friday and the travellers moved away shortly afterwards that evening.

The S77 notice remains in place and as there are now travellers caravans back, we need to obtain an order from the magistrates court to remove the travellers. We are trying to fix a court hearing as quickly as possible and will need to serve Summons on the travellers 1 working day in advance of the hearing. We are at the mercy of the courts in setting a date for the hearing, but we are stressing the importance of the matter.

Thanks

Simon

Hello all

We have been informed that travellers are currently at the above locations.

We have also been advised of the following Bill signing into Law in Ireland. It would be great if the UK could following suit!!!

As stated yesterday, please use this email as a template for Traveller related issues only (just press reply to all) to inform all parties of any movements /pending evictions. Whilst the BID is willing to act as co-ordinator to forward /oversee Traveller related emails, you will appreciate the BID is not always available 24/7 (in particular early mornings, evenings and weekends).

Should anyone not be able access their email account, the BID security have offered a 24hr contact number 07528968080 (Mark), who will circulate an email on their behalf.

Traveller fury as McAleese signs tougher trespass laws

PRESIDENT Mary McAleese yesterday sparked fury among Traveller groups after she signed into law a controversial Bill giving tough new powers for gardai and local authorities to tackle trespassing on land.

The president decided not to refer the measure making trespassing on land a criminal offence to the Supreme Court to test its constitutionality.

But Traveller groups, furious at the measure, have threatened their own legal challenge to the legislation.

Gardai and local authorities may have to wait for weeks and possibly months before they can act on the new laws.

The Minister for the Environment, Noel Dempsey, must first sign a commencement order and this will only happen after consultations are concluded between the Departments of Environment and Justice. This could take weeks or months.

The tough new law means anyone who is found guilty of trespass could face a month in prison, a fine of ?3,000 or both.

The legislation was introduced after public outrage last summer over large-scale Traveller encampments and massive costs to local authorities of cleaning up dumped rubbish.

There were also claims that in some cases Travellers were demanding money to leave property.

Until now landowners had to take court action to force Travellers to leave their property. But the new law will allow gardai to arrest suspects without a warrant, order people to move, and remove property such as caravans without the knowledge of the owner.

One area bedevilled by the controversy of public land occupation is along the River Dodder in south Dublin.

The cost to taxpayers of cleaning up the mess blighting the walkway along the river alone has been put at ?100,000. The scenic walkway was used as an unofficial dumping ground for unwanted cars, household appliances and other rubbish.

Local authorities have complained that it costs them hundreds of thousands of euro every year to clean up after Travellers who have taken over areas.

Gardai will now have powers to arrest anyone who refuses to move a dwelling or animal found improperly on land when directed to do so.

Traveller groups hit back at the development yesterday, claiming it was in breach of the Constitution's equality provisions and was rushed through without any form of consultation with them.

But Justice Minister John O'Donoghue told representatives that the purpose of the new law was not to target Travellers generally but to prevent the recurrence of illegal encampments such as the one along the River Dodder.

A statement issued on behalf of Mrs McAleese said she signed the Bill yesterday morning following a meeting on the Council of State last Monday regarding Section 24 of the Bill.

"The president considered the matter and took the decision this morning," the statement added.

The Pavee Point Traveller Centre last night expressed disappointment that the section 24 had been signed into law.

Ronnie Fay, director of Pavee Point, said: "We will be monitoring the operation of this Act with a view to highlighting constitutional defects and hoping to bring a constitutional challenge at the earliest possible moment."

Travellers claim the legislation will deprive them of their basic human rights and had appealed to Mrs McAleese to overthrow the controversial Bill.

They claim the law is discriminatory and will lead to the criminalisation of 1,200 families living on road sides around the country.

If Mrs McAleese had referred the Bill to the Supreme Court and it had found it was constitutional there could be no further challenge.

However, by not referring the Bill the way is now cleared for anyone to challenge any aspect of the legislation they feel is unconstitutional.

Labour TD Eamon Gilmore opposed the amendment but agreed that there were difficulties over land occupation, particularly during the summer.

Fine Gael TD Olivia Mitchell said the legislation was not about refusing accommodation to Travellers but about protecting the rights of the community.

Subject: Travellers - site behind Premier Inn Dagenham - 6 traveller caravans

Importance: High

Hello all

We have been informed by Fords security that traveller caravans have broken through a fence into what appears to be waste land abutting the Premier Inn Dagenham (A1306) car park. We understand the area in question is accessed via Premier Inn's car park and is in the ownership of Premier Inn – can anyone from LBB Council confirm this please?

See photograph below for identification purposes

Kind regards

Debbie

- London Riverside BID
Importance: High

Hello all

The BID welcomes all new additions to the Traveller advisory data base.

The London Riverside BID Ltd (BID) received a telephone call from Mary Clements, the Barking and Dagenham Chamber of Commerce on Friday 22nd April 2016, regarding our email updates on Traveller movements. Whilst the BID is willing to act as co-ordinator to forward /oversee Traveller related emails, you will appreciate the BID is not always available 24/7 (in particular mornings, evenings and weekends).

May we suggest this email is utilised as a template to inform all parties of any potential threats relating to Travellers only, thus enabling all interested parties to be informed at the earliest possible opportunity. Should anyone not be able access their email account, the BID security have offered a 24hr contact number 07528968080 (Mark), who will circulate an email on their behalf.

We understand the travellers have moved on from the site at ASDA Dagenham and have this morning tried to gain access to Havering College's property on the A1306 !!!!!
We are unaware of their whereabouts at present.

Kind regards

Debbie Moore

Subject: Re: Meeting Friday 22nd April 2016 - hosted by BCCI - Travellers - Co-ordination of Traveller related emails - London Riverside BID

Importance: High

Hello all

The BID welcomes all new additions to the Traveller advisory data base.

The London Riverside BID Ltd (BID) received a telephone call from Mary Clements, the Barking and Dagenham Chamber of Commerce on Friday 22nd April 2016, regarding our email updates on Traveller movements. Whilst the BID is willing to act as co-ordinator to forward /oversee Traveller related emails, you will appreciate the BID is not always available 24/7 (in particular mornings, evenings and weekends).

May we suggest this email is utilised as a template to inform all parties of any potential threats relating to Travellers only, thus enabling all interested parties to be informed at the earliest possible opportunity. Should anyone not be able access their email account, the BID security have offered a 24hr contact number 07528968080 (Mark), who will circulate an email on their behalf.

We understand the travellers have moved on from the site at ASDA Dagenham and have this morning tried to gain access to Havering College's property on the A1306 !!!!!
We are unaware of their whereabouts at present.

Kind regards

Debbie Moore

Hello

The BID's security have already requested that Homes and Housing (who monitor the CCTV on behalf of the BID) direct the cameras towards the travellers/gate.

Are you able to move the travellers on, as the area in question is public highway??

Kind regards

Debbie

Subject: RE: Travellers - Havering College Construction Centre Campus New Road Rainham

Hi everyone,

This Council has this morning received a report Travellers have now occupied land next to Havering College Construction Centre Campus owned by Simply Loos. The owners are aware of the occupation and the police are in attendance.

As the travellers on private land, Simply Loos will take necessary actions to evict the Travellers.

Indeed

These communications are very good and needed. They are an excellent record of what is happening and simply cannot be ignored.

Hello Simon

Thank you for the update, in the interim time the BID will continue with extra security to 'oversee' the travellers and keep an eye on their movements

Kind regards

Debbie

Hi Debbie

We have restarted the legal process and are waiting for a court date.

Please note that my colleagues in Planning Enforcement are taking this on now as I am on leave from today to 27th June – I have cc'd them in if you need any update.

Thanks

Simon

Subject: Travellers - Lamson Road - approximately 6 with vehicles

Hello Simon

As you may already be aware, travellers have returned to the above location. (see photograph below)

We understand that preparations are in hand to remove the travellers from Beam Reach and Choats Road.

Are you able to confirm that the Section 77 of the of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 notice mentioned in your email dated 3rd June 2016 remains in place and the Council are obtaining an order from the magistrates Court to remove the travellers

We look forward to hearing from you

Kind regards

Debbie

Subject: RE: TRAVELLERS _ LAMSON ROAD under TRACKWAY - 6 pm Wednesday 1st June 2016

Dear Maggie

We served a notice under Section 77 of the of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 last Friday and the travellers moved away shortly afterwards that evening.

The S77 notice remains in place and as there are now travellers caravans back, we need to obtain an order from the magistrates court to remove the travellers. We are trying to fix a court hearing as quickly as possible and will need to serve Summons on the travellers 1 working day in advance of the hearing. We are at the mercy of the courts in setting a date for the hearing, but we are stressing the importance of the matter.

Thanks

Simon

Subject: RE: Travellers approximately 8 caravans - Lamson Road - Court action - Section 77 of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 - update last 48 hours

Hello Debbie

Onkar and I contacted the Council's legal team yesterday after the travellers moved back into Lamson Rd to chase this up and have contacted them again today.

We have been informed that the legal adviser at the Court has agreed to have the summons issued and emailed to our legal team. This will enable LBH to serve the summons on the travellers and that the matter can be heard at a hearing date this week (hopefully!).

Unfortunately we are dependent on the Court to move this process along which is quite frustrating.

Kind regards

Hello Onkar/Scott

We refer to our email yesterday detailed below.

As you will see from the photograph below the travellers are parked further up Lamson Road towards Ferry Lane.

Are you able to provide us with an update of where the Council are at with obtaining a Court Order please?

We look forward to hearing from you

Kind regards

Debbie

Hello Simon

Thank you for the update, in the interim time the BID will continue with extra security to 'oversee' the travellers and keep an eye on their movements

Kind regards

Debbie

Hi Debbie

We have restarted the legal process and are waiting for a court date.

Please note that my colleagues in Planning Enforcement are taking this on now as I am on leave from today to 27th June – I have cc'd them in if you need any update.

Thanks

Simon

Hello Simon

As you may already be aware, travellers have returned to the above location. (see photograph below)

We understand that preparations are in hand to remove the travellers from Beam Reach and Choats Road.

Are you able to confirm that the Section 77 of the of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 notice mentioned in your email dated 3rd June 2016 remains in place and the Council are obtaining an order from the magistrates Court to remove the travellers

We look forward to hearing from you

Subject: RE: TRAVELLERS _ LAMSON ROAD under TRACKWAY - 6 pm Wednesday 1st June 2016

Dear Maggie

We served a notice under Section 77 of the of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 last Friday and the travellers moved away shortly afterwards that evening.

The S77 notice remains in place and as there are now travellers caravans back, we need to obtain an order from the magistrates court to remove the travellers. We are trying to fix a court hearing as quickly as possible and will need to serve Summons on the travellers 1 working day in advance of the hearing. We are at the mercy of the courts in setting a date for the hearing, but we are stressing the importance of the matter.

Thanks

Simon

Hi

Updates are No Travellers on the Glenny Rd site (left earleier today towards Ilford) and we are currently seeking update from the police on the premier Inn site

Cheers keith

Ps Ireland bill a start but not far reaching enough. Impound all vehicles on any illegal site (illegal = any site for which you have not gained permission to reside) unless they move on immediately (immediately = 30 mins after presence is acknowledged.)

Debbie,
I have left the Borough and transferred to Tower Hamlets. I'd be very grateful if you could remove me from this mailing list.

My replacement is Chief inspector Rob Bills - who I have cc'd in.

Hello all

As you are aware travellers have been becoming increasingly prevalent in the Beam Reach/Rainham area over the past two years, often jumping from site to site, in close proximity.

On Sunday 13th March 2016, twenty + travellers arrived at the above locations, forcing entry.

Ten caravans settled at 1-3 Salamons Way, with the rest settling at Beam Reach 5.

We understand there was a static security guard at Beam Reach 5. The travellers disconnected the electricity supply to the static guard hut, intimidated the security guard, who left the premises.

At both locations the travellers proceeded to fly tip rubbish, broke into the buildings on site, removed copper pipe, electric wiring and caused considerable internal damage.

We attach several photographs taken at Beam Reach 5, exterior and interior.

The BID's security have now secured Beam Reach 5 by bunding the site and we understand there are plans to place 40' empty containers across the entrance into 1-3 Salamons Way

The BID has been discussing the possibility of considering match funded projects to improve CCTV/Security barriers in the Beam Reach areas. It has been suggested that the existing security hut be moved to a more suitable location to provide monitored access/egress to surrounding companies.

The BID area benefits from a security radio link financed by the BID, which extends to 17 locations, including the Police (when on night shift) and monitored 24/7 by Homes and Housing, the local authorities monitoring station located in Romford

The BID would like to meet with interested parties to consider options to proceed forward, and has suggested either of the following dates/times.

Tuesday 12th April 2016 all day
Wednesday 13th April 2016 all day

We look forward to hearing from you

Kind regards

Hello all

We have been informed that travellers are currently at the above locations.

We have also been advised of the following Bill signing into Law in Ireland. It would be great if the UK could following suit!!!

As stated yesterday, please use this email as a template for Traveller related issues only (just press reply to all) to inform all parties of any movements / pending evictions. Whilst the BID is willing to act as co-ordinator to forward / oversee Traveller related emails, you will appreciate the BID is not always available 24/7 (in particular early mornings, evenings and weekends).

Should anyone not be able access their email account, the BID security have offered a 24hr contact number 07528968080 (Mark), who will circulate an email on their behalf.

Kind regards

Traveller fury as McAleese signs tougher trespass laws

PRESIDENT Mary McAleese yesterday sparked fury among Traveller groups after she signed into law a controversial Bill giving tough new powers for gardai and local authorities to tackle trespassing on land.

The president decided not to refer the measure making trespassing on land a criminal offence to the Supreme Court to test its constitutionality.

But Traveller groups, furious at the measure, have threatened their own legal challenge to the legislation.

Gardai and local authorities may have to wait for weeks and possibly months before they can act on the new laws.

The Minister for the Environment, Noel Dempsey, must first sign a commencement order and this will only happen after consultations are concluded between the Departments of Environment and Justice. This could take weeks or months.

The tough new law means anyone who is found guilty of trespass could face a month in prison, a fine of ?3,000 or both.

The legislation was introduced after public outrage last summer over large-scale Traveller encampments and massive costs to local authorities of cleaning up dumped rubbish.

There were also claims that in some cases Travellers were demanding money to leave property.

Until now landowners had to take court action to force Travellers to leave their property. But the new law will allow gardai to arrest suspects without a warrant, order people to move, and remove property such as caravans without the knowledge of the owner.
