	enforcement team, Gemma EDWARDS, has been spoken to and has confirmed

	s considering legal action against police. Level of police resources t

 *856kg, kg80e on scene. bailiffs believe they have authority to forcefully remove the travellers from the site without a court order. travellers are refusing to move without a court order. situation is currently simmering but at a stalemate with both side refusing to back down. i am currently liaising with ps 18kg and kg1 as i am unfamiliar with the civil legislation being quoted. we are currently here to prevent a breach of the peace but only 2 officers present so will be unlikely to intervene effectively if there is any further incident.

	^OP - caller wishes to complain,
	1) I have made calls, no one has bothered to contact us back, and give us reassurance and keep us informed. (common curtesy)
	2) officer that attended, wasnt fully aware of what his powers and duties where, he could have dealt with the matter there and then and chose not to
	3) dagenham council deals with this and states there is a S61 in place, why has this not been actioned.
	4) I keep behing told lack of man power (which is not a reasonable excuse),
	5) security company has CCTV of the footage taking place and the MET didnt deal with it correctly, [REDACTED] has rung on 9 occations and was promised attendance at 0830, no one showed up
	There is a borough wide order and not specific address order why has nothing been done about this
