Primary Class Teachers - NQTs welcome to apply

Location: Thomas Arnold Primary School, Rowdowns Road, RM9 6NH
Salary: Main Pay Scale
Contract: Full time - Fixed term
Email: office.thomasarnold@bdcs.org.uk
Start date: September 2019
End date: August 2020

Primary Class Teachers - NQTs welcome to apply
Are you a highly motivated primary class teacher with energy and enthusiasm to stimulate children to achieve beyond their expectations?

We are looking for inspirational class teacher to join us as a class teacher (KS1/KS2)
At Thomas Arnold Primary School we believe that a truly outstanding school is one that enables all children to achieve their best. One where academic attainment is high and the academic progress of individuals is maximised. It is a place where all children acquire the character virtues that lead to success in school and university, in work and life beyond.

As a Thomas Arnold Teacher you will teach our skills-based and knowledge-rich curriculum, helping pupils achieve academically and developing their character strengths. You will role model commitment, hard work and good character and strive to exemplify our core virtues.

You will:
- Be an excellent practitioner who inspires your pupils and colleagues and is curious to keep improving.
- Believe that every child in our school can, and will, succeed.
- Enjoy the challenge of, and be committed to, teaching a rigorous, skills-based and knowledge-rich curriculum.
- Share Thomas Arnold’s core values of love of learning, perseverance, integrity, creativity, fairness and zest.
- Be excited by the potential of character education and have an enthusiastic and positive approach to school life.
- Want to work in a school at the heart of the community and cultivate relationships with local families.
- Have a strong ethos of service and the desire to work collaboratively with partner stakeholders, agencies and peers within and beyond the school.
- Have the highest ambitions for our pupils, the school, and yourself.

We will offer you:
- Challenge matched by reward.
- A unique professional development programme including regular coaching, extended weekly PPA and support to pursue further study.
- A happy and supportive working environment with the highest expectations of pupil and teacher flourishing.
If this advert matches your vision and you are excited by the possibility of taking on a role in our dynamic staff team, then we would love to hear from you.

Visits to our school are encouraged. Please contact Bev Neal for an appointment to visit the school – 0208 270 4588 or bneal.301@bdcso.org.uk

Class Teacher

Location: John Perry Primary School, Charles Road, Dagenham, Essex, RM10 8UR
Salary: Teachers Main Pay Scale
Website: www.johnperryprimary.co.uk
Start date: September 2019

John Perry primary is an expanding 3-form entry school with 621 children on roll. In September 2019 we will be at full capacity with three forms of entry across the school. Our school is situated in Dagenham, within easy transport links into and out of Central London. A five minute walk will get you to Dagenham East Tube station on the District Line.

We aim to ensure that every child succeeds to the best of their ability and receives a broad and balanced education which fosters a love of learning for life. Creativity, Inclusion and great learning are what we are all about and strive to achieve in all we do. We are committed to continuous improvement and developing a sense of shared purpose across the whole community. We have a Ofsted rating of Good and have been praised for our inclusive work in our Additional Resource Provision (ARP).

We are looking for teachers who:

- Are self-reflective and have the desire to be the best they can
- Have a professional attitude, are great role models and really want to make a difference for children
- Are great innovators who want to work with others to create exciting new learning adventures for the children in their care
- Are well informed and have great subject knowledge
- Are ambitious for themselves and their children and want to be school leaders of the future

Why work with us?

- High quality Specialist Leaders of Education as mentors
- Staff benefits such as cycle to work scheme, childcare vouchers, bespoke CPD, partnership work with local schools and excellent school food
- Our amazing support staff including Teaching Assistants IT professionals, Swimming coaches, Business Manager, administration, premises and catering teams ensure that you are able to concentrate on teaching and not all the other things that can add to your work load
- Inner London weighting making a difference to your pay. You will be on the highest pay scales available to teachers across the country. As a newly qualified teacher you will begin on a salary of at least £28,098 in inner London. As you rise up the pay ranges, you could earn as much as £115,582 currently only in inner London.
- Our school now has more freedom to develop own pay policies to attract and retain the teachers that have the greatest impact on their pupils’ learning. So what you are paid will be linked to performance and not length of service – meaning you can increase your salary faster than ever before.
To apply please view our ‘Teacher’s application Pack’ which can be found on our school website (www.johnperryprimary.co.uk). We also recommend a visits to our welcoming school.

Deputy Headteacher

Location: Riverside Bridge School (Special School), Renwick Road, Barking, IG11 OFU 9

Salary: Inner London Leadership Spine L

Contract: Full time permanent

Required: 3rd September 2019

Riverside Bridge School is seeking an exceptional deputy headteacher from September 2019, to inspire the school community to deliver an outstanding education to its children and young people with complex needs.

This is an exciting opportunity to lead the next stage of the school’s development.

The School

Riverside Bridge is a special school which opened in September 2015. It is a day special school for 3 – 19 year-olds with a broad spectrum of needs including ASC / PMLD / SLD, situated in the London Borough of Barking and Dagenham. The current roll is 135 with an eventual capacity of 180.

The school is part of a growing multi-academy trust – Partnership Learning – which currently consists of twelve schools – primary, secondary, all-through and special. Being a part of the Trust offers its own opportunities for support, collaboration and staff development. However, the school also works very closely with a nearby established Outstanding special school and maintains a close and positive relationship with the Local Authority.

Riverside Bridge has recently introduced a new leadership team which has taken urgent steps in ensuring the safety and well-being of students is fulfilled and that children are able to live a fully safeguarded life. Recently, the school has undergone the first Ofsted monitoring visit, which recognised the changes made and the impact this has had on children’s outcomes. We are now embarking on the next phase of improvements for the school and would like someone to join us on our exciting journey.

The school is co-located on the same site with Riverside Primary and Secondary provision to form the Riverside Campus. Situated in purpose-built accommodation, the school provides its students with a range of activities to help assist with their life-long learning. The aim is to ensure that pupils are able to thrive and gain as much independence as possible. As well as working on academic strands of attainment a key focus is on life skills.

The Role

Candidates must be committed to leading specialist education that is successful and effective for all pupils.

You will be expected to set out a dynamic agenda for special needs education that will inspire and motivate a committed staff group to deliver the best possible outcomes for all pupils, preparing them for adult life in the community and enabling each one to reach their maximum potential. You will also be expected to play a wider role, working closely with other professionals in helping to shape the future of education for pupils with special educational needs.
The Applicant
This is a challenging and rewarding appointment and we are looking for a highly capable and experienced leader to fill the post. You must be a successful and ambitious leader who is currently employed as either a Middle or Senior Leader of a Special School or a Mainstream School with knowledge of SEND.

You will be passionate about improving outcomes for children and young people with special educational needs and disabilities, along with having knowledge and experience of special needs education, ideally in a range of different special needs settings. As a wide range of special educational needs is reflected in the school population, you must have practical experience of curriculum development, improving and raising teaching standards and monitoring pupil progress and achievement.

You will also be an excellent communicator who is used to building strong effective teams within schools and effective partnerships in the wider community and with other professionals.

Our Offer
In return, we offer an exciting opportunity to shape and influence the outcomes for a large number of exceptional children and young people who face many difficult challenges; to innovate and lead change in a school that is committed to high expectations and success for all. Responsibility, opportunities for development and a competitive salary commensurate with the challenge, accompany the appointment.
