Most children with SEN will stay at SEN Support Education. Support available through Early Years and Schools support. Health Support available through universal and targeted services. Social Care support through Early Intervention and Prevention Services - local groups, charities, voluntary sector.

1. SEN Support
   - Most children with SEN will stay at SEN Support.

2. Referral
   - Referrals can come from parents, young people (over age 16), schools/early years settings and other services.
   - Referral will be sent to the EHC Team.

3. Assessment
   - If the EHC Panel agrees that assessment is necessary, parents and children will complete the All About Me' section with help from a SENCO/EHC Coordinator.
   - A meeting will be arranged involving the family, School/Early Years setting to decide whether to apply for an EHC Assessment.
   - Everyone will look at what support is in place and the eligibility criteria. The referral will be sent to the EHC Team.

4. The plan
   - A meeting will be held with the child/young person and their family to co-produce the EHC Plan.
   - The family will be asked to make a preference for early years setting/school/college.
   - The L.A will send the plan to all involved and consult with parents’ choice of school/setting.
   - The family will be given information on how to request an individual budget.

5. Budget
   - The family or young person (if over 16 years old) can request a personal budget to be used to fund some of the interventions in the EHC Plan.
   - The budget can cover social care, health, respite and some learning support.
   - The EHC Panel will decide if the child/young person is eligible for a personal budget.

6. Review
   - The Plan is reviewed annually through a person-centred review meeting involving the child/young person, the family and sometimes with other services involved.
   - The review will look at all elements of the plan, and the progress against the outcomes.
   - The Plan may be updated electronically and returned to the EHC team for consideration.
