1. INTRODUCTION

London Borough of Barking and Dagenham Council (LBBB) is required by the Lord Chancellor's Code of Practice on the Management of Records issued under Section 46 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to have and to implement a records retention and disposal schedule. This policy sets out details about all the records created and kept by the Council, or our commissioned partners, in such a way that decisions can be made about identifying and disposing of them on a routine and timely basis.

The retention and disposal schedule has been produced in consultation with departments primarily responsible for the business activities and key stakeholders in the processes to establish the legal and regulatory requirements, and business needs on which record retention and disposal policies are based.

The purpose of this records management policy is to ensure that records are kept in such a way that: -

- They can readily be retrieved when required
- It reduces the risks associated with litigation by making it easier to identify and retrieve relevant information
- It ensures accountability and provides an audit trail
- It allows records to be identified for historical and research purposes
- It protects information which is a valuable resource
- Create and capture authentic and reliable records which provide evidence of the Council's activities and decisions and which demonstrate its accountability and can be readily retrieved when required;
- Secure, maintain and preserve those records for as long as they are required (and in accordance with the Council's retention schedule) to provide access to them as necessary to support the Council's operations and fulfil its obligations under the General Data Protection Regulation 2016/279 and Freedom of Information Act 2000;
- Destroy records that are no longer required, having regard to statutory record-keeping requirements, thus promoting the efficient use of physical and electronic storage space.

2. SCOPE

This policy together with the retention schedule (Annex A) applies to all documents defined as records – 'Information created, received, and maintained as evidence and information by an organisation or individual, in pursuance of legal obligations or in the transaction of business' i.e. evidence of the Council's actions, transactions, decisions and agreements.

The retention requirements listed here apply to all records irrespective of media and format, or the system(s) in which the records are held and should be applied to all copies including backups.

Divergence from the retention and disposal schedule may be appropriate in certain circumstances. Any divergence requires liaison and authorisation with the Information Governance Manager.

3. RESPONSIBILITIES

All staff who create, receive, or use records will have some responsibility for their management. Specific responsibilities are outlined below.

Management Board

The Management Board will comprise of representatives of each directorate and will be chaired by a designated officer. The Board will be responsible for:

- Approval of a corporate framework for the management of records within the Council;

- Ensuring compliance with the Freedom of Information Act, 2000, and other legislation appertaining to the management of, and access to, records;
- Promoting the value of historic records and ensuring their preservation as a corporate memory.

Managers and Team Leaders

Managers and team leaders are responsible for ensuring:-

- Record retention policies are implemented in their unit/team, supported by written procedures.
- Record keeping systems and arrangement of records enable identification of records due for disposal.
- Records due for disposal are routinely identified and reviewed to ensure they are no longer required.
- Divergence from the Records Retention and Disposal Policy is authorised by and the Information Governance Manager is notified of changes.
- Staff dispose of records only in accordance with policies set out in this document.
- Records are disposed of appropriately considering their sensitivity, security classification and the media and format(s) in which they are held in line.
- ICT Equipment and storage media are disposed of securely ensuring all records, data and information are removed in such a way that it is not recoverable.
- Records of potential historic interest or research value are identified and transferred with agreement to the Council's Archive Service.
- Evidence of the disposal process is kept.

ALL STAFF

Everyone is responsible for:-

- Following procedures and guidance for managing, retaining and disposing of records.
- Only disposing of records in accordance with the requirements outlined in this policy (if authorised to do so).
- Ensuring that any proposed divergence from records retention and disposal policies is authorised by the Information Governance Manager.

4. LEGAL REQUIREMENTS

Each entry in the retention and disposal schedule details the specific legislation, regulations, guidelines or codes of practice that stipulate or recommend how long records must be kept before they are disposed of. Where no such legislation or guidance exists, LBBD Directorates have been consulted to determine the retention requirements that best suit each business activity.

Some overarching legislation requires that records be kept for a certain amount of time and applies to all Directorates and sections of the Council. These include:-

- The General Data Protection Regulations 2016/279
- The Freedom of Information Act 2000
- The Local Government Act 2000
- The Independent Inquiry into Child Sex Abuse

The Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse (IICSA)

On Thursday 12 March 2015 the Home Secretary established a statutory inquiry under the 2005 Inquiries Act with the aim of conducting an overarching national review of the extent to which institutions in England and Wales have discharged their duty of care to protect children against sexual abuse.

The Inquiry is independent of government. It is supported by a Panel, Victims and Survivors Consultative Panel, and other expert advisers. The Inquiry will cover England and Wales. A wide range of public institutions will be investigated including local authorities, the police, the armed forces, schools, hospitals, children's homes, churches, and charities.

On 2nd July 2015 Justice Goddard wrote to every Chief Executive of Local Authorities in England and Wales, requesting that the organisations:

'retain any and all documents; correspondence; notes; emails and all other Information, however held, which contain or may contain content pertaining directly or indirectly to the sexual abuse of children or to child protection and care. For the purposes of this appendix, the word 'children' relates to any person under the age of 18'

We must not destroy, and must make available for inspection, all reports, reviews, briefings, minutes, notes, and correspondence in relation to

- allegations (substantiated or not) of individuals, organisations, institutions, public bodies or otherwise who may have been involved in, or have knowledge of, child sexual abuse, or child sexual exploitation
- allegations (substantiated or not) of individuals having engaged in sexual activity with, or having a sexual interest in, children
- institutional failures to protect children from sexual abuse or other exploitation
- statutory responsibilities for the care of children in public or private care
- the development of policy on child protection
- the development of legislation on child protection
- the determination of the award of Honours to persons who are now demonstrated to have had a sexual interest in children or are suspected of having had such an interest.

All these document types - in whatever format - must be 'retained pending further requests from the Inquiry'

Although the Councils' records retention schedules are very clear on the destruction dates of files, the instructions received by the Inquiry constitute a legal hold as defined by section 12.3 of the code of practice issued under Section 46 of the Freedom of Information Act. As such all records that fall within the above categories are retained, and not destroyed, until we are directed otherwise.

For any advice on clarification on whether records can be destroyed or are covered by the Inquiry retention hold, consult the Information Governance Manager.

5. BENEFITS OF HAVING A RETENTION AND DISPOSAL POLICY

The benefits to the Council in having a retention and disposal policy are to:-

- Ensure records are only kept for as long as there is a business need
- Reduce the volumes and costs of both paper and electronic records storage
- Prevent duplicates of documents being maintained
- Make it easier to find and share information
- Improve the working environment by reducing storage space
- Comply with specific legal and regulatory requirements including the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (including the Code of Practice on records management made under s.46), the General Data Protection Regulations 2016/279 and the Public Records Acts 1958 and 1967
- Support accountability through the retention of records (including the availability or archival records of genuine historical value)
- Demonstrate that the disposal of information assets has been carried out according to an agreed policy
- Avoid the costs and potential liabilities of retaining information the Council does not really need and which is likely to result in legal discovery actions and possible involvement in third party disputes.
